

Daytime Functions in the Wro Loft

Many thanks for your enquiry about the possibility of holding your forthcoming event in the Wro Loft. We understand that no two events are the same – whatever the occasion, we are confident that the Loft provides the perfect setting.

Located on the first floor above the Wro Bar and functioning independently, the Loft has a dedicated kitchen and restrooms with baby changing facilities. The venue provides the perfect space for private gatherings for groups from 25 up to 60 people (subject to current restrictions). During the summer months the balcony is a lovely area for guests to enjoy some outside space.

Please take a look at our suggested menus. If you prefer a bespoke package, we can work together to create a menu of your very own!

If you would like to discuss your event please contact us:

- Provisional bookings will be held for a period of one week after which time the date will be automatically released (unless an extension has been agreed)
- Confirmation of final numbers must be made no later than two weeks prior to your event when payment for all pre-ordered food and drink must be made
- A charge of 50p per person will be made for guests wishing to bring in their own celebration cake(s) for us to serve (this includes the provision of plates, cake forks and napkins)
- We charge per head for the number of guests you advise us are attending and will not cater for lower numbers
- The Loft is located on the first floor of the building accessed by a private entrance and staircase – please note that there is no lift to the first floor but once upstairs all facilities are on the same level.

Booking Terms & Conditions for a Function at the Wro Loft

These terms and conditions form the basis of an agreement between the client and Wro Events Ltd

The client can only consider a booking for a function as confirmed following receipt of the client's deposit of £100. Please note that this is non-refundable.

In the event of circumstances beyond the Wro's control e.g. pandemic related closures, floods, earthquakes etc., the Wro reserves the right to cancel a booking at any time but in such circumstances the deposit will be refunded in full.

Should any changes take place in pandemic legislation following initial planning discussions e.g. social distancing, restricted numbers, the Wro will discuss options with the client and agree the optimum solution.

The organiser's credit / debit card details will be required prior to the start of the function.

The card will also be used to pay for any damages that have occurred during the event leading to costs for the company as a direct result of the guests' actions e.g. additional cleaning / excessive breakages. This will be discussed with the organiser the following working day before any charges are taken from the card.

At the time of booking, the client shall state as accurately as possible the number of persons expected to attend. All quotations are based on an agreed minimum number of people. We reserve the right to change the venue to an area within the Wro Bar if numbers reduce significantly and fall below 25 guests.

The final number of guests attending an event must be confirmed no later than 14 days prior to the date booked and this is the number that will be charged for. Should the number increase within the notice period and the capacity of the venue allows for the style of service, the Wro will endeavour to accommodate the extra requirement. However, this cannot be guaranteed and charges will be increased accordingly.

The Wro reserves the right to change any price quoted for food and drink booked more than 60 days ahead of the event taking place, in line with supplier price increases and the Budget review etc.

The client should make the manager on duty aware of any person authorised to order additional goods or services either before or during the function.

No food or beverage of any kind is permitted to be brought onto the Wro's premises by the client or their guests without prior consent. Any such consent may attract an additional charge. Any person found to be consuming their own drinks will be asked to leave immediately.

The behaviour of all the guests is the responsibility of the client i.e. the person(s) entering into the Agreement with Wro Events Ltd. Any person acting in a disruptive or inappropriate manner will be asked to leave the premises. Should this occur the client may be asked to terminate the function. We reserve the right to refuse service to any intoxicated guests.

We operate a Zero Tolerance Drugs Policy. Anyone found in possession of illegal substances will be reported to the Police and asked to leave the premises. We reserve the right to stop a function if we suspect any kind of drugs activity.

Children are the responsibility of their parent(s) or guardian(s) and must be supervised at all times. This includes on the balcony, staircase and toilet corridor.

Nothing shall be fixed to any part of the building without prior consent. No confetti or table sprinkles are permitted.

The Wro shall not be liable for any loss or damage to the property of the client or any of their guests as may so occur. This includes cards and gifts left at the end of the event. Please note that all items must be collected no later than the day after the event.

The client will always comply with the Statutory Laws concerning licensing and entertainment provisions relevant to the Wro's operation.

Guests are permitted to take drinks on the balcony until 9pm but the doors must remain closed. This is a no smoking area.

CCTV is in operation on the premises.

Live Music – If the client prefers to source their own provider this must be approved in advance. The Wro will require the contact details for the provider and will need to discuss licensing requirements, sound and volume levels. The provider will have to adhere to any management requests at the event in terms of sound levels etc. Please note that the provider can have access to the venue one hour prior to the agreed start time. Access any earlier may incur a charge.
